NATIONAL FFA ALUMNI AND SUPPORTERS

Resource Guidebook

The National FFA Alumni and Supporters Resource Guidebook was created to equip your alumni and supporters chapter and members with the necessary resources to help support the FFA mission of premier leadership, personal growth and career success. These resources are delivered through the FFA strategic plan areas of engaging our members, supporting our advisors and telling our story in order to strengthen the FFA vision of growing leaders, building communities and strengthening agriculture. It combines several ready-to-use resources into the Growing Quality: National FFA Alumni and Supporters Quality Program Guide so that you can accurately evaluate your chapter's program as well as have the resources to help strengthen it at your fingertips.

The Growing Quality: National FFA Alumni and Supporters Quality Program Guide is designed to be utilized by FFA Alumni members in support of local teacher(s), administration, community partners, advisory committees and/or external stakeholders to conduct an evaluation of the local FFA Alumni member program and develop clear goals and objectives for program improvement. The Growing Quality: National FFA Alumni and Supporters Quality Program Guide is a result of a need to provide a consistent delivery of high-quality FFA Alumni and Supporters programs across the nation. Local FFA Alumni members are tasked with supporting local agricultural education programs, FFA chapters, teachers and students. Through FFA Alumni and Supporters, volunteers in the community are able to be actively engaged in developing, supporting, strengthening and sustaining agricultural education and FFA in their school(s). FFA Alumni and Supporters generally focus their work into five categories: business operations for FFA Alumni and Supporters; FFA Alumni member development; advocacy for agricultural education; agricultural education/FFA program development; and student development. Activities in each of these areas ensure that a local member is creating a balance in the services, programs and events conducted throughout the year.

School-Based Agricultural Education

THREE-COMPONENT MODEL

DIRECTIONS

Listed on each rubric are qualities or quality statements that are being assessed based on local FFA Alumni and Supporters performance. Each quality or quality statement is followed by a series of indicators/questions that further define or assess the quality or quality statement. The sum of the indicator scores serve as a ranking and determine if the quality or quality statement has been met. The sum of the indicator scores must reach the identified criteria score for meeting the quality or quality statement in order to be considered as a Quality Alumni and Supporters Program. Reviewers should strive to rate the quality indicator based upon the level of criteria met. The following rating scale will be utilized and indicates the following:

Exemplary: A model FFA Alumni and Supporters program that is deserving of imitation and should be a model for replication.	3
Intermediate: An emerging FFA Alumni and Supporters program that is applying knowledge and completes complex tasks associated with the quality indicator noted.	2
Novice: A new or emerging FFA Alumni and Supporters program that is acquiring knowledge and completes tasks associated with the quality indicator but needs assistance to be successful.	1
Nonexistent: An FFA Alumni and Supporters program that does not embody the quality indicator noted.	0

OBTAINING TAX-EXEMPT STATUS FOR YOUR LOCAL CHAPTER OR STATE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

How do we obtain federal tax-exempt status for our chapter?

Visit FFA.org/alumni and click on the “Start an Chapter” link from the left menu to obtain paperwork for starting/reactivating a local chapter and to obtain tax-exempt information and documents.

Step 1

Ensure “active” status with the National FFA Organization by either starting or reactivating a local FFA Alumni and Supporters chapter. To start/reactivate, submit an Application for Charter, a copy of your constitution and bylaws and dues for at least 10 members. “Active” chapter status requires at least 10 members annually to maintain status and qualify for tax-exempt status under the FFA umbrella.

Step 2

Obtain an Employee Identification Number (EIN) from the IRS. Obtain an SS-4 application and instructions from www.irs.gov or by contacting national staff at alumni@ffa.org. Visit our website’s “Start a Chapter” page and select from the right-hand menu, “Tax Exemption Information.” This document provides instruction on what to write in various boxes on the application. Submit the application via phone, online or mail. DO NOT BE CONCERNED WITH INCLUDING A SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER OR THE REQUESTED GROUP EXEMPTIONS NUMBER (GEN) AS THIS IS JUST A VERIFICATION PROCESS.

Step 3

Complete and submit the “Return Form to FFA” found on the “Start a Chapter page” from the right-hand menu. Once received by FFA, they will contact the IRS and have your EIN linked to the FFA GEN. A letter will then be sent to the chapter indicating they’ve been linked and provide information verifying the GEN.

Step 4

Obtain state tax-exempt status. In order to be sales tax exempt in your state, your chapter will have to contact the state agency that manages sales taxes. This is the State Department of Revenue in some states; it may be a different agency in your state. The agency should have a form for you to use to request exemption from sales tax. You can indicate that you are exempt from federal income taxes under the National FFA Organization’s GEN and include that information with your application. That may be enough to get the exemption. Has your chapter applied for income tax exemption in your state? If not, you may need to do so in order to be eligible for sales tax exemption. Each state has different requirements so visit your government websites to learn more.

Step 5

File annually with the IRS to maintain your EIN. Pay dues annually to the National FFA Organization to maintain your active status. Each year, the IRS requires FFA report any chapters that no longer qualify.

What happens if we don’t file a 990?

The law requires FFA Alumni and Supporters chapters to file an annual Form 990, 990-EZ or to submit a Form 990-N e-Postcard to the IRS. If a chapter fails to file an annual return or notice as required for three consecutive years, it will automatically lose its tax-exempt status. Late fees can be accrued for chapters filing late each year.

Visit www.irs.gov for additional information.

WHAT FORM MUST BE FILED ANNUALLY BY YOUR CHAPTER?

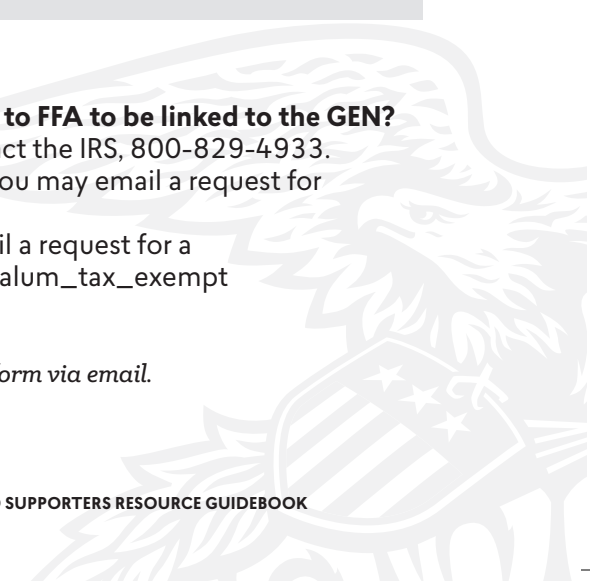

2010 Tax Year and Later (Filed in 2011 and later)	Form to File
Gross receipts normally ≤ $50,000 Note: Organizations eligible to file the e-postcard may choose to file a full return.	990-N	The e-postcard is due every year by the 15th day of the fifth month after the close of your tax year. For example, if your tax year ended on December 31, the e-postcard is due May 15 of the following year. If the due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, the due date is the next business day. You cannot file the e-postcard until after your tax year ends. File at: http://epostcard.form990.org . The form must be completed and filed electronically. There is no paper form.
Gross receipts < $200,000 and total assets < $500,000	990-EZ or 990	Due every year by the 15th day of the fifth month after the close of your tax year. For example, if your tax year ended on December 31, the e-postcard is due May 15 of the following year. If the due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the due date is the next business day. Can file electronic or hard copy. MEMBERSHIP OPTIONS

National FFA Alumni membership is open to anyone interested in supporting FFA, agricultural education, agriculture or volunteerism through their gifts of time, talents and financial resources. Membership in the National FFA Organization includes many rights, benefits and privileges; however, no level of membership entitles any member to act for and/or on behalf of any local, state or national FFA Alumni and Supporters associations regarding any policy or position unless granted by and through the bylaws and/or is otherwise granted specifically, in writing, by the National FFA Organization.

Note: These forms of membership are intended to be recognized at all levels. Given the autonomy of state and local FFA Alumni and Supporters chapters, it is up to these chapters if they would like to collect and set any dues that they may access to any of these membership types. The National FFA Organization will recognize these memberships at all levels, as of the 2016-17 membership year. For the most current membership information, visit FFA.org/JoinAlumni.

Annual Membership

Annual membership is open to anyone interested in supporting and advocating for FFA, agricultural education, agriculture or volunteerism through their gifts of time, talents, and financial resources on a yearly basis. Annual members receive the opportunity to subscribe to FFA New Horizons magazine for $5 per year, the ability to attend personal and professional development conferences and conventions, additional sponsor benefits and a voice in alumni and supporters business.

Lifetime Membership

Life membership is a one-time INVESTMENT in the future of our organization. Your investment ensures that FFA and FFA Alumni and Supporters will be around for future generations of agriculturists and to help us reach as many members as we possibly can so that they can exert an influence in their home and community. Alumni members receive a membership card, a membership certificate, a lifetime subscription to FFA New Horizons magazine, the ability to attend personal and professional development conferences and conventions, additional sponsor benefits and a voice in alumni and supporters business.

Associate Membership (Effective 2012/2013 membership year)

The delegate body adopted Associate membership as a free five-year national membership provided annually to potential members who are graduating or have recently graduated from high school.

Affiliation Program

The membership affiliation program is designed to easily mobilize volunteers to support local agricultural education programs and their FFA chapters. This program allows chapters to provide membership, services and benefits to an unlimited number of volunteers/supporters for one fee while keeping the rest of their funds right at home for their local programs. This program will also assist the National FFA Organization in their strategic goal of having an active alumni and supporters chapter for every FFA chapter in the country and dramatically increasing the number of advocates and supporters with time, talents, and resources at the local, state, and national levels.

Nontraditional Chapters

Nontraditional chapters are available to colleges, groups, businesses and corporations as a means of providing their members/employees an opportunity to individually and collectively help support agricultural education programs and FFA chapters as a unified alumni and supporters chapter without being tied directly to a local FFA chapter. Nontraditional chapters connect geographically separate, yet otherwise-linked, individuals to one another and allow them to rally around nearby chapters, even if those chapters are not their home chapters. This connection allows them to be a helping hand to local FFA advisors, as well as to state associations and the national organization.

For more information on any of these membership options or directions on how to become a member, visit FFA.org/joinalumni.

ALUMNI MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

The FFA mission is to make a positive difference in the lives of students by developing their potential for premier leadership, personal growth and career success through agricultural education. Ask any alumni member why they became a member, and with almost 100 percent certainty, they will answer, “To make a difference in student’s lives.” As alumni, the biggest benefit that we can receive is knowing that our service truly makes a difference in the lives of students. After all, isn’t that why we are here? Alumni members volunteer to help students evolve and find their passion in agriculture, which then allows them to evolve into better people because of those experiences. Below are some additional benefits that come with alumni membership.

Regional Development Conferences

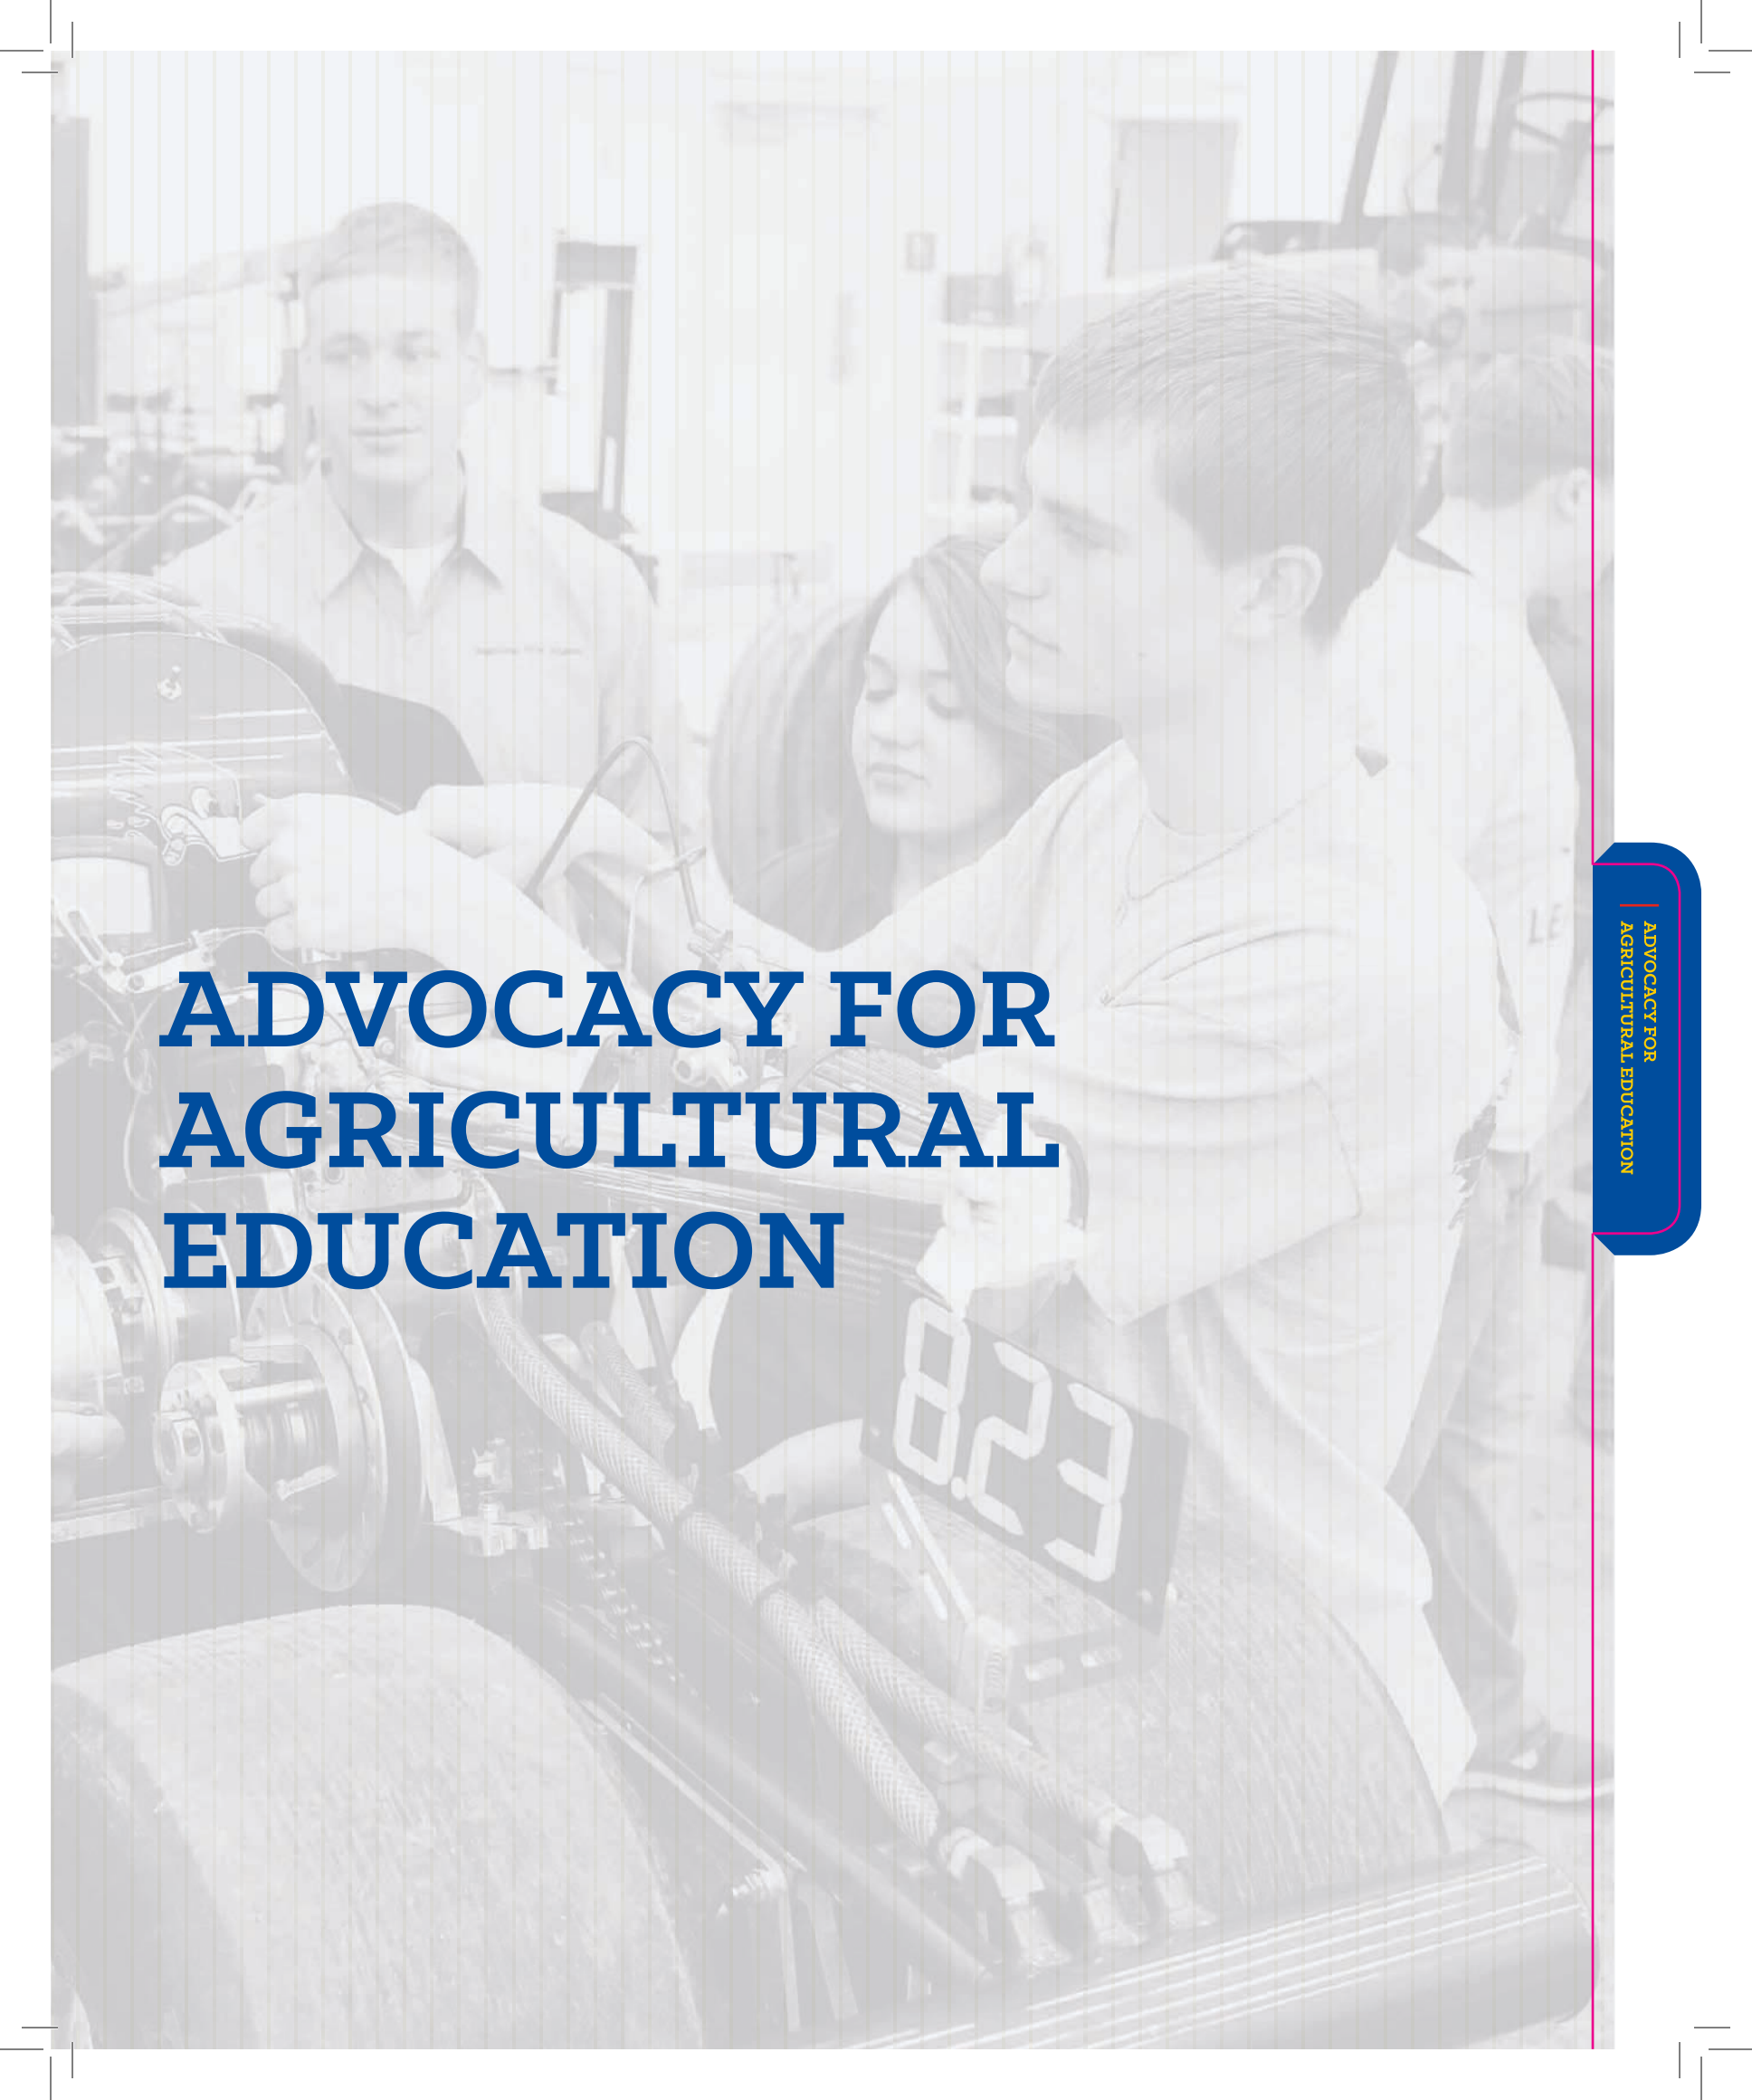

The National FFA Organization is bringing professional, personal and FFA Alumni member development to the masses. The event format allows for networking and socializing with fellow FFA Alumni members; idea sharing and collecting feedback to address obstacles; learning and training in areas of advocacy, leadership, chapter business operations and more. Why should you attend?

- Educational workshops.
- Hands-on training.
- Great opportunity to build a team with your local agriculture educator.
- Idea sharing, networking and more.
- Meet and build a working relationship with alumni from nearby states.

ADVOCACY

Alumni and supporters of the National FFA Organization play an important role in advocating for its mission and communicating its purpose. We all know advocacy is important, but putting it into practice can sometimes be difficult. Some questions may arise:

We are intimately aware of the impact of FFA and agricultural education, but how do we share the qualitative and experiential components with someone who has no experience with our organization?

Who are and should be our target audiences? Why?

How do we “box” our message and yet remain adaptable to different advocacy situations?

How do we evaluate the short-term and long-term success of our advocacy efforts?

How do we engage students in the advocacy process? When is their story an effective advocacy tool?

As with any other organized effort or project, advance planning is an important part of developing effective messaging. Below is a simple 10-step process for developing an advocacy plan. The National Association of Agricultural Educators (NAAE) uses and promotes this planning process. The National FFA Organization’s Washington Leadership Conference attendees also learn this process during their time in Washington, D.C.

10 Steps to Developing an Advocacy Plan

1. Identify an advocacy challenge or opportunity.

In order to properly identify a challenge or opportunity to develop an advocacy plan for a program, you must first evaluate your local program and community. Look for opportunities to enhance aspects of your community, to change the way policies are made or for a possible problem that you need to address.

2. Determine key audiences.

Be sure to evaluate the key players involved in the decision-making process within your school, community or state. Identify both the primary and secondary audiences associated with this group.

3. Determine what they know.

Evaluate possible information that is available to the individuals who you may be trying to reach. It is important to understand what position they may already have or what information they have access to before you can properly address them with your ideas.

4. Determine how they receive their information.

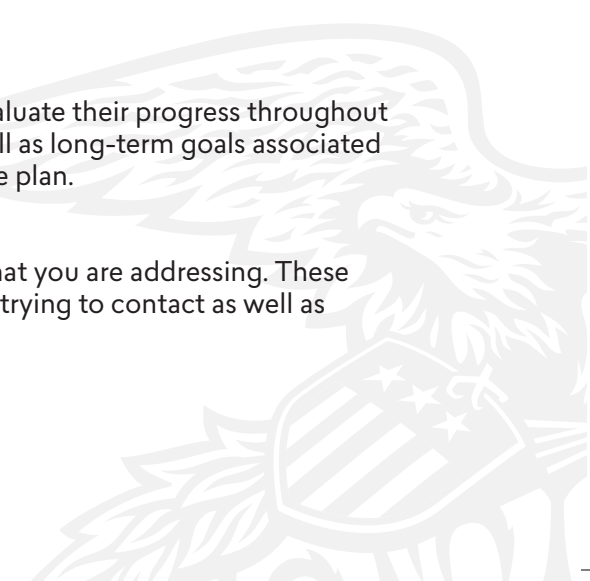

Conduct interviews with members in the key audience so you can understand where and how they receive information. With this information, you can address the audience in the most effective way possible and gain recognition of your issue.

5. Develop measurable objectives.

Objectives should be measurable, specific and attainable so that you can evaluate their progress throughout the time spent on promoting the issue. You should include short-term as well as long-term goals associated with your plan in order to determine how you will evaluate the success of the plan.

6. Develop message points.

A message point is a clear statement about the program, issue or problem that you are addressing. These points provide background knowledge and clarity to the individuals you are trying to contact as well as provide structure for your argument and influence over the situation.

7. Communication materials and promotion.

Communication and promotional materials can consist of magazine articles, classroom content, press releases, letters, emails, websites and more. The purpose of these materials is to ensure that the message points are delivered in an effective way to the individuals identified as your key audience. These are important to delivering the information so that it can be properly distributed based on the objectives you outlined for the plan.

8. Resources.

Identify resources that will be effective in managing and executing your plan. This step is essential. Effective resources could possibly include classroom instruction and your students and/or FFA members. Also, resources include anything that will contribute to the cost of the plans, including postage, computers, paper, transportation, etc.

9. Timeline.

When developing a timeline for an advocacy plan and executing the plan, it is important to keep accurate records of progress. You should indicate a completion time for each of your activities and evaluate your progress for those activities.

10. Evaluation.

Revisit your objectives and timeline frequently. Measuring your objectives by determining the outcomes and outputs of the program will be essential in understanding if your resources were invested wisely and if your objectives were properly met. Though this may seem like an extra step, it is one of the most important, steps because without an evaluation of the plan, you will not know what will or won't work for next time.

This framework should give you a good start in your advocacy efforts. After establishing a plan, the next step is implementing it. While outward communication is an essential part of advocacy, listening to the concerns and input from your audience is just as important. Your efforts will be informative in all cases and persuasive in some. In instances of persuasion, such as requesting funding or ensuring the continued existence of your local FFA program, always show respect, be prepared to answer questions, and remain optimistic.

Advocacy is a skill that is applicable not only in FFA but also agricultural education and agriculture as a whole. As we strive to share the story of agriculture, inform consumers and work with other agriculture supporters, we realize that advocacy is a continuous process. Take pride in the traditions, heritage, progressiveness and leadership of agriculture in the United States and globally.
