

What is the Wisconsin State FFA Convention News Room?

You share the State FFA Convention to the WORLD...well at least WISCONSIN!

You have the opportunity to conduct interviews, write articles, take pictures, and compile convention highlights. You get a press pass to go behind the scenes and gather, organize, report, and distribute convention happenings.

Get your start in the NEWS ROOM!

The Wisconsin FFA Center is looking for FFA members who want to volunteer in the State Convention News Room. You will be involved in:

- Welcoming guests
- Escorting speakers and special guests to appropriate locations
- Recording award information presented in each session immediately back to the News Room
- Writing and proofing news releases for each session
- Roving and capturing convention snapshots
- Delivering needed materials to contest managers
- Handing out news releases
- Locating award winners for pictures and/or interviews
- Locating chapters for award/flag/display returns

This is your opportunity to get media experience. You will be expected to write articles, conduct interviews, take photos, and compile convention highlights for the Wisconsin Association of FFA Annual Report. To join the News Room staff, check out the application on www.wisconsinaged.org!

News Room staff make it possible for people all around the state of Wisconsin to gain information about students developing premier leadership, personal growth, and career success.
