PRESS RELEASE-NEW PRESIDENT ELECT FOR WAAE

SAUK CITY; WIS. – This year the 2021-2022 WAAE Board of Directors were elected into their positions on June 29, 2021 at the Professional Development Conference held in La Crosse, WI. Coming in as President Elect is Amy Gerhardt of Neillsville, WI. Amy has been teaching agricultural education for 23 years with the last 18 years in Neillsville, the home of Chatty Belle, the World's Largest Talking Cow.

Ms. Gerhardt has served on the WAAE board for the past four years, representing Section 7. “Serving on the WAAE board has allowed me to gain appreciation for the diversity of our membership, and the value of our organization. One of my largest goals as President-Elect is to perfect communication among secondary and post-secondary agriculture teachers”, states Gerhardt.

Amy and her husband, Marty, have three children and enjoy camping, showing cattle, and binge watching Netflix, in their free time.

WAAE is the professional association for agricultural educators in Wisconsin. Members include 410 middle school, high school, technical college and university educators. The focus of the association is to provide professional development, legislative support and educational resources for teachers to enhance their local agriculture education programs.

For more information about your local agriculture education program and to find out how you can support agriculture in your community, please contact your local agriculture education instructor or visit www.waae.com.
