

FIRE
Foundations in Reaching Excellence

- Designed for beginning FFA members.
- Valuable information about the FFA organization.
- Develop self-confidence in meeting other members.
- State FFA Officers plan and conduct these one-day conferences.
- Topics such as personal development, FFA opportunities and programs, developing an SAE and learning what the FFA organization is all about are covered in the fun-filled, hands-on workshops.

FIRE Conference 2019

FFamily...

VACATION

October 5, 2019 – FVTC-Appleton

October 12, 2019 – UW-River Falls

October 19, 2019 – UW-Madison

Wisconsin Association of FFA

Who Can Attend?

FFA FIRE Conferences are for younger FFA members - Discovery and Greenhand members – 7th, 8th and 9th graders - just getting started in the FFA organization.

FIRE Conferences help young members explore what the FFA organization has to offer. These members meet other young members from across the state.

Over 600 total FFA members attend FIRE Conferences during the three weekends.

Conference Schedule

Registration Begins 8:30 a.m.; Program 9:00 a.m.; Conference Concludes at 4:00 p.m.

How Much?

Student Registration fee $35 per person. Fee includes t-shirt, string bag, lunch, and conference materials.

Optional Advisors can sign up for lunch ($10.00) or a t-shirt ($10.00) or both ($20.00).

How Do I Register?

Go online at www.wisconsinffa.org for your online registration form.

SIGN UP TODAY!

Young members won't want to miss this opportunity to get to know their state officers and learn more about FFA!!