Student Name: Joe Smith

SAE: Swine Entrepreneurship

Date of this visit: October 15, 2004

Date of last visit: August 22, 2004

Efficiencies/Skills Observed:

1. Earnotching pigs
   - N

2. Three boar rotational crossbreeding program
   - C

3. Ration mixing
   - C

4. Clipping needle teeth
   - C

5. Artificial Insemination of gilts
   - N

6. Record book updates
   - C

7. ______________________________________________________________________

8. ______________________________________________________________________

9. ______________________________________________________________________

10. ______________________________________________________________________

SAE Record Book Checks:

Daily Log
   - X

Efficiencies Recorded
   - X

Hours/Wages Totaled
   - X

Skills Recorded
   - X

Inventory Recorded
   - XO

FFA Activities Updated
   - X

Community/School Update
   - O

Personal Expenditure Update
   - X

11. Photos Taken:

   a. Artificial Insemination by Joe

   b. Joe ear notching a litter of pigs

   c. Joe selecting gilts for herd replacements

   d. Joe and his father looking at changes in his SAE agreement
12. Suggestions given for improving this SAE:
   a. Contract some hogs
   b. Consider direct sales of hogs to customers to improve returns
   c. d.

13. Items for student to add to his resume:
   a. Attended Summer Officer Leadership Camp
   b. 3rd Place District Safe Tractor Operator Contest
   c. d.

14. Personal page ideas for this SAE Proficiency area
   a. Balance Sheet (Work on in class with Joe)
   b. Copy of SAE Agreement
   c. d.

15. Time at SAE site  two hours

16. Signatures (Optional)
   Advisor
   Student
   Parent