State Officer Election Process and Recommendations
Ethan Dado presented a proposal written by Sally Albers and himself regarding the State Officer Election Process and Filling a Vacant Section. See Handout He noted that this proposal is not personal but rather, focuses on continuing to improve the process. The plan is to survey state officers, past state officers, advisors, and past state officer candidates who were not selected regarding the state officer election process. Then a task force will be created to review the survey and provide recommendations. A constitutional change may be needed in the long-run. The proposal will ensure that all state officer candidates are qualified for the position.

The proposal includes: 1) a revised scorecard 2) plan to fill a vacant section from another section 3) questions in interview regarding the willingness to serve a different section 4) ensure the delegates are still utilized.

Mrs. Konkel shares her concern regarding the mark of “unqualified” and how devastating that would be to a student. The logistics of Sectional Leadership Workshops and Leadership Development Events was another concern. Mr. Meyer shared that candidates should be interviewed again if running for another section to eliminate bias in regard to Part 9 of the proposal. He suggests adding a panel of judges to interview those candidates or another round of interviews for candidates. Mrs. Beaty suggested the removal of the terms “qualified” and “unqualified” and implementing a minimum point system where a candidate must earn a least the set amount of points to continue with the process. Mrs. Erb shared that the advisors send the recommendation of the candidate and in their eyes are qualified. She adds that by marking a candidate “unqualified”, it may discourage other candidates from running in fear of being marked “unqualified” themselves. Morgan Fitzsimmons asked when the proposal will be implemented. The proposal will be implemented this year, if passed.

The board removed the terms qualified and unqualified. Sam Pinchart moved to accept the proposal with modifications made by the Board of Directors. Amelia Hayden seconded the motion. There was no discussion. Motion passed with sustaining action by advisors.
