

Wisconsin Association of FFA

State Constitution and Bylaws

Last Revised: 2021 Convention

State Constitution and Bylaws

Article I—Name and Purposes

- Section A. The name of this organization shall be "The Wisconsin Association of FFA." Members are hereinafter referred to as "FFA members." The words "Future Farmers of America," or "The National FFA Organization" may be used to officially designate the association, its chapters, or members.
- Section B. The objects and purposes of the association shall be in conformity with the objects and purposes as stated in the National Constitution and the Official Manual.

Article II—Organization

- Section A. The FFA is the national organization for students of agriculture education, and the Wisconsin Association of FFA is an association of local chapters chartered by the State Association.
- Section B. Student chapters of the FFA, for students enrolled in schools of less than college grade, shall be chartered or maintained only in schools where recognized systematic instruction in agriculture education is offered under the provisions of the National Vocational Education Acts. More than one chapter may be chartered in a school when deemed appropriate by the State Committee. Such chapters shall operate as an integral part of the instructional program for agricultural education, under the responsibility of the local school system.
- Section C. In the event a local department of agricultural education is discontinued, its chartered FFA chapter may officially operate for a period not to exceed three years (36 months) from the date of the discontinuance, provided proper supervision is given by a person having the approval of the local school administrator and the state FFA advisor. The chapter's charter must be surrendered to the state advisor at the end of the three-year period if a local department of agricultural education is not in operation in the school at the time.
- Section D. The state organization shall be divided into ten sections based on both geographic factors and number of chapters. Each section shall be comprised of three districts for a total of thirty districts. Each section shall be represented by one state officer position.

Article III—Procedure for Determining Standing of Chapter and Members

- Section A. A local chapter shall be considered to be in good standing with the State Association when the following general conditions are met:
1. All current state and national dues have been paid in accordance with the conditions specified in the bylaws.
 2. All reports have been submitted to the Executive Secretary as required.
 3. No provisions of the chapter constitution are in conflict with the State and National Constitutions, or with PL 740 of the Federal Statutes. Activities are in harmony with the ideals and purposes of the national organization.
 4. The executive committee and advisory council, shall have the power to suspend local charters in cases of violation of the state or national constitutions. A report on all suspensions shall be presented to the next succeeding State Convention.
 5. In case any local chapter is not in good standing with the State Association at the time of the opening of the State Convention, the delegates at the convention shall have the power, upon recommendation of the State Advisory Council, to withdraw the charter and refuse such chapter official representation at the State Convention. When such action is taken, the chapter in question and members thereof shall be denied the regular privileges of the State Association. Upon meeting the requirements for good standing, a chapter may be reinstated by action of the State Executive Committee and Advisory Council, not earlier than ten days after the closing date of the State Convention during which it was not in good standing.

- Section B. Student members shall be considered in good standing when:
1. The members attend local chapter meetings where the local chapter is established.
 2. The members show an interest in, and take part in the affairs of the chapter.
 3. The members pay their dues annually.
 4. The members conduct themselves in harmony with the Code of Ethics.

Section C. Any student in 7th or 8th grade, who has an interest in agriculture education, and is enrolled in an agriculture program, can join the FFA and be entitled to all privileges and activities offered other members of the FFA.

Article IV—Membership

- Section A. Membership in this organization shall be of two types:
1. Student
 2. Adult

Section B. Student Membership

Any student who is regularly enrolled in agriculture education is entitled to become a student member of any chartered FFA chapter. To retain membership during high school, the member must be enrolled in at least one agriculture education course during the school year and/or follow a planned course of study for an agricultural occupation (including a supervised agricultural experience program), the objective of which is establishment in an agricultural occupation. Members may retain their student membership until November 30, following the fourth national convention following graduation from high school or leaving high school. Only student members may vote or hold office, except that office of Executive Secretary or Advisor in the chapter or the State Association.

FFA members in good standing at the time of their induction into the armed forces of the United States of America, shall be in good standing during the period of their induction without further payment of dues or attendance at meetings. Time spent in the armed forces, shall not be considered as elapsed time in determining the maximum period of three years after the first national convention, following graduation from high school or leaving high school. Members making use of this waiver of service time for the purpose of maintaining student membership for application for advanced degrees, must resume student participation within six months after having been honorably discharged from service, indicating such a desire by payment of dues and attendance at meetings. Members participating in the six-month Armed Service Program, shall be eligible for one full year of extended membership. No individuals, however, may retain their student membership beyond their 23rd birthday.

Section C. Adult Membership

Membership in the FFA Alumni Association is open to anyone interested in supporting the FFA, including student FFA membership.
